

Financial Statement and Impact

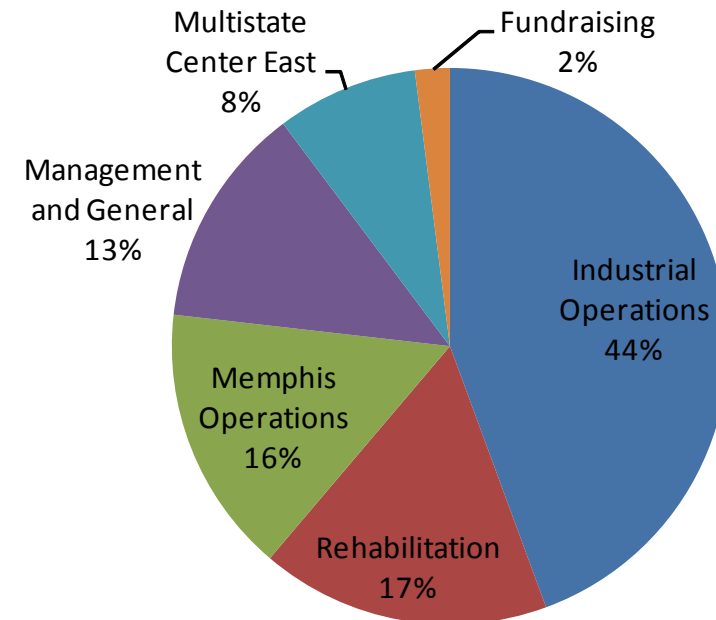

Operating Revenue and Support Sources

$6,405,493

Cost of Services

$8,946,132

In order to make efficient use of our limited resources, we are publishing this abbreviated report with the most important information – our community impact. Please note that the programs and services listed are a representative sample of what is offered to the community.

Should you like this report in braille or large print, please connect with Lori Wortylko, manager of communications and marketing at 513.728.6288 or lwortylko@clovernook.org.

Our Mission

To promote independence and foster the highest quality of life for people with visual impairments, including those with additional disabilities.

Cincinnati

7000 Hamilton Avenue
Cincinnati, OH 45231
513.522.3860

Memphis

346 Saint Paul Avenue
Memphis, TN 38126
901.523.9590

www.clovernook.org

Clovernook Center...

Community Impact Report FY 2009-10

... a common thread

816 people received services such as: job placement, technology, low vision and recreation in Cincinnati resulting in increased independence.

*Pictured left: Tricia Spradling and Leslie Allen

372 people connected with Clovernook through information and referral sources, providing education and guidance for impactful services offered.

55 individuals expressed themselves artistically through a nurturing, therapeutic program where creativity and learning took place.

*Pictured left: Alan Freeman

54 people who are blind (or visually impaired) work at Clovernook Center providing them with financial stability and independence.

223 people received low vision evaluations, services and adaptive aids to optimize their remaining vision.

8,912 volunteer hours were logged by 714 volunteers - including: readers, board members and transportation assistance.

*Pictured left: Volunteers from GE

15 individuals received temporary worksite instruction for the mastery of job duties as well as consultation regarding worksite adaptations that may be useful.

Through braille literacy, individualized services and vision rehabilitation therapy, we helped meet the need of 16,014 people.

7,796,286 compostable paper hot cups were supplied to our customers.

50 youth between the ages of 8-22 participated in the Youth Discovery Program, learning practical applications that will last each child a lifetime.

*Pictured right: Catherine Kwan and Krisstinna Gill

31 individuals received job placement services, resulting in gainful and meaningful employment.

81 people utilized Clovernook's Social Services. This support system helped individuals adjust to recent and long-term vision loss.

*Pictured below: Members of a Low Vision Support Group

110 individuals received assistive technology training increasing their marketability, productivity and social inclusion.

4,160 people were exposed to Clovernook's mission through health fairs, tours and speaking engagements.

243 people received services such as: job placement, orientation and mobility, technology, and low vision in Memphis resulting in self sufficiency and independence.

*Reginald Hastings pictured right

